Weekend at Juliet's

- Premise -

The setups for this scene is pretty straightforward. The fun lies in the interactions between Yorick, Osrick and Hamlet as he make them do more and more ridiculous things. Do your best to have the kids speak in the general direction of the other characters. I have included the basics below along with any special shot's I would need below.

- Location -

Any room will work but preferably one that has the most hotel room like qualities.

There are three set ups for this shoot

Bathroom Door - Beginning of scene with Hamlet in bathroom.

Hotel Room Door - Hamlet's interaction with Bellhop.

Hotel Room - Everything else.

- Props -

Script - (Yorick, Osric) Any bunch of papers will do.

- Costumes -

Hamlet - Turtleneck

Yorick - Casual outfit, a bit worn down. Maybe a hat.

Osric - A bit more dressed up.

- Shots -
